

Society for
French Studies

R. Gapper Postgraduate Essay Prize Coversheet

Each institution may submit up to THREE essays, with one coversheet per essay to be completed by the Head of Department or their representative. Please send each essay and each coversheet as separate files to Professor Richard Scholar (gapper-pg@sfs.ac.uk). See overleaf for eligibility criteria.

(for questions with multiple responses, please delete one answer as appropriate)

Student name
University
Student's contact email address
Has the student given permission for this essay to be submitted?	Yes	No
Has the student given permission for the Society of French Studies to keep an appropriate and secure record of the information on this coversheet and to announce publicly their name, institution and essay title if they win?	Yes	No
Date of student's initial submission of this assessed work
Essay title
This essay title was set by the institution	... devised by the student
Is the essay entirely the student's own work, to the best of your knowledge?	Yes	No
Is the essay being submitted without revision since the initial submission?	Yes	No
Module or paper (or other context) in which the essay was submitted

Please note that, to be eligible for submission, essays must be:

- entirely the student's own work and submitted in unrevised form
- written in the previous 12 months by a postgraduate student while registered at a university based in the United Kingdom or the Republic of Ireland
- addressing a topic within the scope of the discipline of French studies
- written in either English or French, with any quotations from French supplied in the original language
- up to 6,000 words in length (including notes but excluding bibliography)
- word-processed with numbered pages
- submitted without any information that might identify the student, or institution, appearing anywhere in the essay
- submitted by the university, with the student's agreement, as one of up to three annual submissions per university
- accompanied by a separate coversheet
- submitted on the understanding that no correspondence will be entered into by the Society regarding individual essays.
- If a draft thesis chapter is entered, candidates are reminded to ensure that it can be read as a stand-alone essay.